H. A. Allison moved his family out to the ranch yesterday after several weeks sojourn in Alliance. Harvey says he is going to teach that young son of his the art of "punching cows" now.

L. L. Raymond and wife stopped in Alliance yesterday enroute from Lincoln to their home at Scottsbluff. Mr. Raymond had just passed a successful examination before the state bar commission and is now a full fledged attorney.

A. D. New has moved his family from Rushville to Alliance. Mr. New is one of the early settlers in Sheridan county and has a wide acquaintance in this section of the state. He is an auctioneer and has the reputation of being a good one as well as a splendid citizen.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of John Bennett and Miss Addie Poole at Marland November 26. Mr. Bennett is the B. & M. station agent at Marland and a prominent young man. Miss Poole is an accomplished and popular young lady of that place. She is sister of Thos. Poole of this city.

Dr. Julia V. Frey has arranged for advertising space in the official paper and your attention is directed to her card in this issue. Dr. Frey has met with success since locating in Alliance and those who believe in the virtues of osteopathy come a long distance for treatment. Mrs. D.
E. Curtis, of Torrington, Wyo., and Miss Sarah Rutherford, of Fort Laramie, Wyo., who have been receiving treatment for the last month, returned to their respective homes Wednesday.

The Oratorio of Esther, the Beautiful Queen, will be presented at the opera house this evening and tomorrow evening, by the singers of Alliance assisted by a class of beautiful singing children, comprising a grand chorus of sixty voices, all in gorgeous costumes representing Jews and Persians in ancient times. The entire proceeds to be used to purchase a piano for the school. The curtain rises at 8:30 sharp and no admission during the singing.
Parents should bring their children and all enjoy a feast of song. No pains are being spared to make these concerts the finest given in Alliance and you should not fail to hear them.

Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Day! Your voices raise To God on high in hymns of praise.
The fruitful yield
Of vine and field
Has brightened all our earthly ways.
Give thanks to God, who rules on high,
For welcome rain and sunny sky.
For peace and love
Praise God above,
And all His mercies glorify!

Thanksgiving Day! Praise God and sing Till every vale and hill shall ring.
Thanksgiving Day! From work apart Let mankind come. From field and mart Let anthems rise
To pierce the skies
To prove the thanks within each heart.

Give thanks to God for mercies shown And kneel today before His throne, For peace and joy
Without alloy
The loving Father's kinship own.

Thanksgiving Day! Let every voice Show how our grateful hearts rejoice.

Thanksgiving Day! Forget not those Who know naught but life's bitter woes.

Be not delayed—
Give them the aid

That brother unto brother owes.
Lift up the brother bowed by care, Divide your blessings everywhere;

The highways scan
For fallen man Who needs the help that you may share.

Thanksgiving Day! Give from your store To aid the hungry, sick and poor.

Thanksgiving Day! From distance wide Let loved ones come to sit beside

The festal board
Whose joys afford
Long hours of love whate'er betide.

Give thanks to God for earthly ties;
For love that beams in shining eyes.
Sing songs of praise Until your lays Are echoed back from vaulted skies.

Then at God's throne kneel down and pray Your homage this Thanksgiving Day.

—WILL M. MAUPIN.

Notice.

Owing to the fact that we have scarlet fever in our city, I think it necessary that the strictest precautions be taken. The law imposes a heavy penalty for failure on the part of physician (Dr. H. H. Bellwood), or head of family for failure to report at once to health officer, any case coming within their knowledge, and the purpose of this notice is to warn all concerned that the law will be rigidly enforced.

J. KRIDELBAUGH, Mayor.

A Quiet Wedding.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Fielding Wednesday evening when their daughter Ferne was married to Mr. Frank McFarland, the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. C.
Jeffers. Just relatives and a few intimate friends were guests at the wedding. A supper was served following the ceremony and a pleasant hour spent by all present.
Mr. and Mrs. McFarland are among our best known and most highly respected young people. Both are earnest and efficient workers in the Baptist church and members of its choir and young people's society and their unity of interests gives them many friends reason to expect for them the happiness they so heartily wish for them. They went to housekeeping at once in rooms in the same house occupied by the bride's parents.

The Schubert Symphony club and ladies' quartet gave an entertainment at the opera house Wednesday evening under auspices of St. Matthew's Episcopal church.
They had a good house and entertained their auditors right royally for an hour and a half or two hours. Every number was heartily endorsed and they graciously responded to most of them. The instrumental numbers by the quartet and solos by its members were heartily applauded and the vocal selections and solos were even better received. Master Tom Purcell's violin solos bespoke the true artist and his wonderful talent is splendidly developed for a lad of fifteen years. He surely has a bright future before him in his chosen field. Evangeline Parker's monologues furnished much merriment.
Her interpretation of the characters she assumed were excellent. Mrs. Parker will be remembered by many in the county as Miss Evangeline VanNest, who resided with her father near Box Butte. She was married to J. V. Parker about fourteen years ago at Nonpareil where Mr. Parker published a newspaper. Mrs. Parker spent some time studying in a Chicago conservatory and now resides in Madison, Wis. During her stay here she was entertained by Mesdames J. E. Joder, F. E.
Holsten, R. T. Watson, B. F. Gilman, Miss Pease and other friends.

Do It Now.

If you haven't already—most everybody else has, i. e.: Subscribe for THE HERALD. Cut out the Rev. Dr. Horn's letters each week and paste them in a scrap book. It will make a splendid book to preserve for your children to read. The first letter from abroad will appear early in December.

It has already been demonstrated that Dr. Horn is a most interesting writer—in fact, it is doubtful if there could be found in the State any one who is better qualified or could write up such a trip more entertainingly than he.

This is the opportunity of a lifetime. Don't delay.
Do It Now!

Additional local news on page 4.

A. C. Bingham has contracted for more space in the HERALD.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Kinsley came down from Hemingford today to attend the funeral of Mrs. Dunn tomorrow.

The HERALD is not up to the standard this week owing to an extra large run of job work the office has had. We were unable to set the type for the editorial page and Maupin's department.

Geo. Darling has a lot of new pieces in statuary. They are very ornamental and are within reach of any body's purse. You can't make a mistake in purchasing a few pieces to decorate your home.

A. C. Bingham, the piano dealer sold two pianos, two organs and one Royal sewing machine last week. This week he is in Bayard and Scottsbluff with pianos and organs. Mr. Bingham has in transit four pianos and six organs from the factories. We know that no firm in the west has better facilities for buying and selling goods right than Mr. Bingham.

Editor A. B. Wood of the Gering Courier was in the city yesterday. Bro. Wood says that Gering continues to improve and its citizens have faith in its future. Be-this as it may, it is unfortunate that Gering and Scottsbluff are not one town instead of being three miles apart and pulling in opposite directions. If the two towns were consolidated, then you would see one of the best towns in western Nebraska.

A fire was started from a defective flue in the old feed mill, later used as a hotel, in the west part of the city Wednesday afternoon. Although the fire had quite a good start when the fire department reached there the boys soon had it under control and succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before much damage was done. Alliance has a fire department which would be a credit to many cities of twice its population.

Mrs. C. Ellis Clough has been very ill with appendicitis in Omaha the past week.
She was taken very sick here Wednesday of last week and her condition was considered dangerous, the attending physician stating that nothing but an operation would relieve her. Mr. Clough was in Omaha at the time and it was decided to take her there for treatment. She stood the operation well and the latest word from there report her to be getting along well.

A very interesting bowling contest took place at Harvey's alley Monday evening, interesting at least to lovers of the sport.
It was between the five having had the highest scores during the preceding week.
A. Renswold carried off the honors, $5.00 having been put up for the winners, his average being 195. W. S. Ridgell was second. The contestants and points scored by them were: Renswold, 974; Ridgell, 810; Hoyt, 730; Waples, 727; Holden, 677.

At the meeting of the Royal Arch Masons held Monday evening the following persons were chosen for officers for the ensuing year: E. C. McClure, H. P., W.
R. Akers, K.; W. O. Barnes, scribe; F.
M. Knight, treasurer; K. H. Mosher, secretary; S. A. Franklin, C. H.; Henry Renneu, P. S.; Charles E. Mathews, R.
A. C.; F. M. Knight, M. 1st V.; N. C.
Pederson, M. 2nd V.; J. N. Andrews, M.
3rd V.; W. R. Akers, chaplain; D. O.
McIntyre, guard.

Mrs. Daniel Dunn.

Mrs. Daniel Dunn died at her home in this city Thursday forenoon. She was past sixty years of age and has been afflicted with kidney trouble for sometime. Mrs.
Dunn came to this county with her husband and family about seventeen years ago. She was a kind wife and mother and was loved by a large circle of friends. A husband and six grown children are left to mourn her loss. The funeral will be held from the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock.

A wedding took place at the Catholic parsonage at eight o'clock Thursday morning when Ralph Land and Miss Anna M. Delaney were married by Father Galvin. Mr. Land is one of the proprietors of the Owl restaurant in this city and is a sober and industrious young man. Miss Delaney's home was at Janesville, Wis., and arrived in Alliance yesterday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Land have known each other for years and as this city was to be their home they decided that it would be more convenient to have the marriage take place here.

A deal was closed yesterday whereby C. R. Fuller becomes owner of the H. A.
Mark photograph establishment. Mr.
Fuller has been in the employ of Mr.
Mark since July when he arrived here from Jamestown, New York, where he was engaged in the same line of business for himself. He is an artist and will maintain the reputation for the place that his predecessor has built up. Read Mr.
Fuller's announcement in another column.
Mr. Mark does not expect to engage in business again for sometime. He will remain with Mr. Fuller till after the holiday rush and may then go to Denver.

Special Announcement.

We have bought the apparatus, negatives and good will of Marks' photographic studio and solicit the continued patronage of the people of Alliance and vicinity. We shall endeavor to give our customers strictly high grade work at satisfactory prices. Photographs are now universally used as holiday gifts, the styles this season being especially appropriate for the purpose. We have all these novelties in
